

GCTU NEWSLETTER

HIGHLIGHTS OF APR. - JUN. 2026 EDITION

www.gctu.edu.gh

EDITORIAL TEAM

MS. JENNIFER AKUDE
(EDITOR-IN-CHIEF)

DR. NUSRAT-JAHAN
ABUBAKAR
(ASST. EDITOR)

FRANCIS EDJAH
(MEMBER)

COSMOS DAMIEN
KAGUAH
(JOURNALIST)

HENRY ANNAN
(COMMUNICATION DESIGNER)

HENRY KWEKU AMOAH
(WEB EDITOR)

LAWRENCE OKYERE
KWAPONG
(PHOTOGRAPHER)

PROF. EBENEZER MALCALM PROMOTED TO RANK OF PROFESSOR.

We are excited to inform the University Community that the University Council, at its sitting held on 13th May 2026, approved the promotion of Prof. Ebenezer Malcarm from the rank of Associate Professor to Professor in the Department of Management Studies, Business School of the University.

The promotion takes effect from 1st August 2025.

MS. JENNIFER AKUDE
ASSUMES ROLE AS ACTING REGISTRAR.

PhD ACQUISITION

Mr. Kennedy Oppong Fosu, Director of Internal Audit, has acquired a PhD in Finance from the University of KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa, awarded on 12th May, 2026. He is now Dr. Kennedy Oppong Fosu.

The maiden National Young Women Leaders Summit brought together young women, educational leaders and development advocates to promote leadership and innovation.

GCTU HOSTS MAIDEN NATIONAL YOUNG WOMEN LEADERS' SUMMIT.

The National Union of Ghana Students (NUGS-GCTU), in collaboration with its Women's Commission, hosted the maiden National Young Women Leaders' Summit on June 19, 2026, at GCTU to empower young women for leadership and national development.

“THE FUTURE BELONGS TO THOSE WHO HAVE THE COURAGE TO CREATE IT”

– SAMIRA BAWUMIA

Former Second Lady, Mrs. Samira Bawumia, cutting a cake to officially launch the NUGS Women Podcast during the summit.

Former Second Lady Mrs. Samira Bawumia delivered the keynote address at the National Young Women Leaders' Summit held at GCTU on June 19, 2026, where she urged young women to embrace leadership and officially launched the NUGS Women Podcast.

"I STEP AWAY WITH A DEEP SENSE OF FULFILMENT AND PRIDE"

– GCTU HONOURS OUTGOING REGISTRAR EMMANUEL BAIDOO

GCTU held a farewell dinner on June 12, 2026, to honour outgoing Registrar Mr. Emmanuel Baidoo and celebrate his contributions to the University

Mr. Baidoo being supported to cut a cake at the event.

ACTING VC INDICATES THAT LOCATIONS, POVERTY AND INFRASTRUCTURAL GAPS DEPRIVE ACCESS TO ONLINE EDUCATION.

Acting Vice-Chancellor Prof. Ebenezer Malcolm represented GCTU at the League of Tropical Universities 2026 Summit in China, where he highlighted the need for inclusive hybrid distance learning to expand access to education.

GCTU HOSTS PROF. LUTHER-KING JNR. ZOGLI FROM DURBAN UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY (DUT).

GCTU hosted Prof. Luther-King Jnr. Zogli of Durban University of Technology from May 26–29, 2026, to strengthen academic collaboration and explore joint research opportunities.

Prof. Ebenezer Malcalm (right) with Prof. Luther-King Jnr. Zogli exchanging pleasantries.

A group picture of Prof. Zogli, management and some faculty and administrative staff

GCTU HONOURS OUTGOING REGISTRAR, MR. EMMANUEL BAIDOO, FOR FOUR YEARS OF DISTINGUISHED SERVICE.

Management and Council members presenting a token of appreciation to Mr. Baidoo.

GCTU Management held a special appreciation meeting on June 10, 2026, to honour outgoing Registrar Mr. Emmanuel Baidoo for his dedicated service and contributions to the University

GCTU GOVERNING COUNCIL INAUGURATES SEVEN-MEMBER SEARCH COMMITTEE FOR REGISTRAR.

The Governing Council of GCTU, led by the Chairman, Ing. Divine D. K. Kpetigo, has inaugurated a Seven-Member Search Committee to oversee the process for the appointment of a new Registrar for the University on May 26, 2026, at the Vice-Chancellor's Boardroom

13

Members of the Committee taking the Oath of Office and Secrecy.

GCTU COUNCIL INAUGURATES ASSESSMENT AND EVALUATION COMMITTEE FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF REGISTRAR AND DIRECTOR OF FINANCE.

Members taking the Oath of Office and Secrecy.

A group picture of members with the Council Chairman.

The Governing Council of GCTU, led by the Chairman, Ing. Divine D. K. Kpetigo, has inaugurated an Eight-Member Committee to assess and evaluate the re-appointment of the Registrar and the Director of Finance on May 12, 2026, at the Vice-Chancellor's Boardroom.

CSBPD TRAINS 15 BUI POWER AUTHORITY STAFF IN PROJECT MANAGEMENT (PMP).

GCTU Ladies Association marked the 2025 Breast Cancer Awareness Campaign on October 14, 2025, at the Tesano Campus under the theme “Every Story is Unique, Every Journey Matters,” engaging staff, students, and a health facility to promote awareness, early detection, and regular screening.

Photos from the event.

GCTU GRADUATES FIRST COHORT OF MEDIA TRAINEES UNDER CSBPD – WOYEJE MEDIA ACADEMY PARTNERSHIP.

Nhyira Boateng (left) receiving the Overall Best Student award for outstanding performance. Mrs. Akanji (middle) and Mrs. Kusi (right).

Graduates pose for a group photograph with facilitators and dignitaries after the ceremony.

GCTU, through its Centre for Strategic Business and Professional Development (CSBPD), in partnership with Woyaje Media Academy, successfully graduated its maiden cohort of media trainees on Saturday, April 11, 2026, at the Florence Onny Auditorium. The training aimed to bridge the gap between theory and practice in media training.

GCTU SHINES AT 2026 MINI GUSA GAMES WITH GOLD AND BRONZE.

Emmanuella posing with the GCTU team coach after her gold-winning performance.

GCTU recorded an impressive performance at the 2026 Mini GUSA Games held from May 5-15, 2026, showcasing the University's sporting excellence across five disciplines.

Emmanuella Yaa Kyere, gold medalist in the female Table Tennis competition.

GCTU SIGNS STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP WITH JCL TO EXPAND INTERNATIONAL LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES.

The Acting Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Ebenezer Malcalm (left), exchanging a signed copy of the MoU with the CEO of Jamgo-Cee Ltd. Mr. John Kwadwo Amaniampong.

Officials of GCTU and CEO of Jamgo-Cee Ltd. engaging in discussions after the signing ceremony.

GCTU signed a Memorandum of Understanding with Jamgo-Cee Limited on June 10, 2026, to expand students' access to international exposure, academic exchanges, industrial training, and global leadership opportunities

GCTU SIGNS STRATEGIC MOU WITH HAINAN UNIVERSITY TO DEEPEN ACADEMIC COLLABORATION.

GCTU signed a Memorandum of Understanding with Hainan University, China, on April 22, 2026, to strengthen collaboration in academic exchange, research, and innovation in ICT, cybersecurity, and artificial intelligence.

The Acting Vice-Chancellor of GCTU, Prof. Malcalm (right) and his Hainan University counterpart, Vice President Gao Diangong (left), sharing a handshake after signing the MoU.

Management of GCTU and members of the Hainan University delegation posing for a group photograph following their discussions.

GCTU SECURES GOOGLE DEEPMIND AI RESEARCH FOUNDATION GRANT.

From left to right - Dr. Samuel Danso (HoD, Computing Engineering), Dr. Isaac Osei Nyantakyi (Computer Engineering) and Prof Ebenezer Malcolm, Ag. Vice-Chancellor/Pro Vice-Chancellor.

The Ghana Communication Technology University (GCTU), through its Department of Computer Engineering, has secured a prestigious grant from the Google DeepMind AI Research Foundation to advance Artificial Intelligence (AI) education, research and capacity building within the University community.

DIRECTORATE OF INTERNAL AUDIT HOLDS INTERNAL AUDIT AWARENESS SEMINAR.

Council Chair and University Management with the Resource Persons.

The Directorate of Internal Audit, GCTU, in collaboration with the Institute of Internal Auditors held an Internal Audit Awareness Seminar on May 25, 2026, at the Florence Onny Auditorium, Tesano Campus to mark Internal Audit Awareness Month 2026.

A group picture of the facilitators and some members of the University Community.

GCTU ACADEMIC BOARD ELECTS REPRESENTATIVES TO KEY COMMITTEES.

The former Registrar (Returning Officer) counting the ballots.

Academic Board members participating in the voting process to elect representatives to key university committees.

The Academic Board of GCTU elected new representatives to serve on various Council and Academic Board sub-committees at an emergency meeting on April 24, 2026, following the expiration of the previous representatives' tenure.

FACULTY OF ENGINEERING, ESA AND HIKVISION GHANA EMPOWER STUDENTS THROUGH CAREER BOOST WORKSHOP.

Dean of Faculty of Engineering (second from right), Dr. Ruhiya Abubakar with Students from the Faculty

Group Photo of Students and Trainers at the Forecourt of the GCTU Campus.

The Faculty of Engineering, in collaboration with the Engineering Students' Association (ESA) and HIKVISION Ghana, organised the three-day "Career Boost + Boot Camp" from June 18–20, 2026, to equip engineering students with practical, industry-relevant skills.

GCTU AND CELTEL FORGE STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP TO DRIVE DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION IN HIGHER EDUCATION.

Delegation paying keen attention to Dr. Prince Kludjeson's remarks during a meeting

Group picture of the delegation at the meeting.

In a strategic move to advance digital transformation and strengthen academia-industry collaboration, GCTU hosted a high-level delegation from CELTEL Network for a pivotal engagement session aimed at redefining the future of technology-driven education in Ghana.

GCTU AND NASAAG HOLD LEADERSHIP SUMMIT ON INDUSTRY AND POLICY LEADERSHIP.

Prof. Amoako Asiedu giving her opening remarks at the summit.

GCTU, in collaboration with the National Academy of Students Achievement Awards (NASAAG) has organized a Leadership Summit to provide students with practical knowledge, leadership skills and entrepreneurial insights relevant to today's competitive job market on May 21, 2026

GCTU HOLDS CAREER EXPERIENCE ACTIVATION FAIR FOR FINAL-YEAR STUDENTS.

GCTU, through the Office of the Dean of Students Affairs, in collaboration with GIZ and partners, organised a Career Experience Activation programme for Level 400 finalists on May 26, 2026, to equip students with career skills and workplace opportunities.

GCTU HOLDS OPEN FORUM FOR STUDENTS.

The Office of the Dean of Students Affairs has held an open forum for students on June 2, 2026, at the Florence Onny Auditorium, Tesano Campus. The aim of the forum was to provide students with an opportunity to express their views, share concerns and suggest improvements aimed at enhancing student experience.

Deans of Faculties/Schools, Directors and representatives from various Directorates and Departments.

GCTU HOSTS ISPRIC DELEGATION FROM MALI TO ADVANCE ACADEMIC COLLABORATION.

Management and faculty of GCTU engaging the ISPRIC delegation in discussions on academic collaboration and programme development.

The ISPRIC delegation led by Dr. Mohamad Gakou (middle) in a group photograph with management and faculty of GCTU.

GCTU welcomed a three-member delegation from ISPRIC, Mali, for a three-day working visit from March 30 to April 1, 2026, to advance academic collaboration and institutional capacity building under an existing MoU.

GCTU HOSTS SEMINAR ON INSURANCE, FINANCIAL SECURITY AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP.

Participants paying keen attention at the seminar.

The Office of the Dean of Students, in collaboration with the National Academy of Students Achievement Awards (NASAAG), organised a seminar on May 19, 2026, to equip GCTU students and staff with financial literacy, insurance, entrepreneurship, and career development skills.

GCTU LAUNCHES “START RIGHT-END RIGHT” INITIATIVE FOR 2026 FRESHERS.

Participants at the event.

Prof. Emelia Amoako Asiedu (front row, middle) with the facilitators in a group photograph.

The Department of Alumni Relations and Institutional Advancement, under the Directorate of University Relations, organised the maiden edition of the "Start Right-End Right" Programme for 2026 Level 100 students on March 25, 2026, at the Florence Onny Auditorium, to equip freshmen with the guidance and support needed for a successful university journey.

GCTU LAUNCHES MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS MONTH.

The Guidance and Counseling Unit, under the Office of the Dean of Student Affairs, launched the maiden edition of Mental Health Awareness Month on May 4, 2026, at the Main Reception, Tesano Campus, to promote mental well-being and raise awareness of mental health.

GCTU RECEIVES 200 LENOVO LAPTOPS FOR GOVERNMENT'S ONE MILLION CODERS PROGRAMME.

The Acting Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Ebenezer Malcalm has, on behalf of Council and Management, received 200 Lenovo laptops with lockers from the Ministry of Communication, Digital Technology and Innovations (MCDTI) to support the successful implementation of the government's One Million Coders Programme at the Engineering Lab, Tesano Campus on June 5, 2026.

GCTU, ACCESS HOLD SEMINAR ON ENTREPRENEURSHIP.

GCTU, in collaboration with the African Centre for Career Enhancement and Skills Support (ACCESS), organised a seminar on June 16, 2026, to equip students with the skills and industry insights needed to enhance their employability.

GCTU, SRM INSTITUTE OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY SIGN MOU FOR ACADEMIC COLLABORATION.

GCTU signed a Memorandum of Understanding with India's SRM Institute of Science and Technology on April 25, 2026, to strengthen academic and professional exchange.

GRASAG-GCTU HOSTS SEMINAR ON QUALITY ACADEMIC PAPER WRITING.

The Office of the Dean of Students, in collaboration with GRASAG, has held a seminar to equip participants with knowledge and skills required to produce high-quality academic papers on May 21, 2026 via zoom.

